אֶתְתִּי אֲשֶׁר־שָׁמְתִי בָּם וַיִּדְעוּתָם כִּי־אֲנִי יְהוָה:

כִּי־אָנִי הִכְבַּדְתִּי

For I hardened

And He, the Lord Said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh; for I have hardened everything from the Letter Aleph to the Letter Tav of his heart, and everything from the Letter Aleph to the Letter Tav of the heart of his servants, that I might show these my signs before him; 2 And that you may tell in the ears of your son, and of your grandson, what things I have done in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am the Lord.

Sign of the serpent - Exodus 7.10-14

Each plague was a month apart. Each plague was for seven days or less.
Stone p328

Each plague was equal to more than fifty miracles. For example it was a miracle one frog came out of the river and when struck became two frogs, i.e. duplicated. This duplication happened thousands of times. Each was a miracle. When the frogs returned to the river all at once it was a miracle. Returning to the river was a miracle. Dying in the river was a miracle. There were many additional miracles associated with each plague. How do we know this? In Exodus 8.15 the Torah says this is the finger of God. In Exodus 9.3 The Torah Says, Behold, The hand of the Lord is upon the cattle... A hand has five fingers. The interpretation is each plague represents five miracles...
